

The Nordic
Energy Way

THE ARENA PROGRAMME

Day 1: June 12

10.00 – 11.00	Café Seminar in teams Why am I here and how can I contribute to the Nordic region achieving carbon neutrality in 2050?
11.00 – 12.00	Welcome and inspiration Anne Cathrine Gjørde Director, Nordic Energy Research Markus Wråke, International Energy Agency: Nordic Energy Technology Perspectives Per Espen Stoknes, "Climate policy and psychology": How do we understand and address human behaviour when developing R&D priorities in Nordic energy research to achieve a carbon neutral Nordic region in 2050?
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch
13.00 – 18.15	Group work in teams Developing unique Nordic R&D priorities that meet the NETP challenges, to the benefit of industry, research institutions and society
18.15 – 20.00	Test Panel The teams present their R&D priorities for a panel of experts that guide them as to HOW to refine them, WHAT to be aware of and HOW the solutions can be developed and implemented throughout the Arena and beyond: Anders Eldrup – a Danish business leader who for years has been a central figure in Danish politics and business. Claus Bindslev – CEO and strategic advisor of Bindslev Next Step Poul Erik Morthorst – Senior research specialist, Risø National Laboratory for Sustainable Energy Jørgen Henningsen – Senior Consultant, European Policy Centre think tank
20.00 – 22.00	Dinner, late night inspiration and drinks

norden

Nordic Energy Research

Day 2: June 13

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 09.00 - 09.30 | From scenarios to action: how to form effective sustainable energy policies?
Benjamin Sovacool, Professor, Centre for Energy Technologies (CET) Aarhus University in Herning |
| 09.30 - 12.00 | Action plan and Nordic Cooperation Code
Stakeholder list of who are to be involved in implementing cooperation code and action plan to reap the benefits of the new R&D priorities |
| 12.00 - 13.30 | Editors meeting
Representatives from all groups meet to align results prior to final presentation |
| 13.30 - 14.30 | Final presentation for high level Nordic officials
R&D priorities, action plan and Nordic Cooperation Code |
| 14.30 - 15.00 | Next R&D steps towards carbon neutrality in 2050
Anne Cathrine Gjørde, Director, Nordic Energy Research |