

From trash to treasure

Workshop on food waste utilized as biofuels – Nordic resources and solutions for the future

June 7th, 2018, 10:00 - 14:00

Stavanger Forum

Gunnar Warebergs gate 13

4021 Stavanger, Norway

Program

10:00 Why biofuels from food waste?

- Welcome (practical info)
- From trash to treasure – the Nordic approach to exploiting food waste. Karin Gaarsted, vice chairman, Committee for a Sustainable Nordic Region (10-15 min)
- Purpose of this workshop – Torill Meistad, Nordic Energy Research (10 min)

10:30 Opportunities

- Presentation of study: current resources and utilization. Pöyry (10 min + 5 min questions)
- Students innovate away food waste. Fanney Frisbæk, Iceland (max 10 min)
- Presentation of study: economic opportunities and technologies. Pöyry (10 min + 5 min questions)
- A Swedish perspective: Current situation and visions for the future. Jon Nilsson-Djerf, Avfall Sverige (max 10 min)
- DISCUSSION: What are the opportunities for using food waste for energy in the Nordics?

11:30 Break with refreshments and mingling

12:00 Challenges

- Presentation of study, Megan, Pöyry (10 min + 5 min questions)
- A Finnish perspective: Tage Fredriksson, Bioenergia (max 10 min)
- A Norwegian perspective, Agri-e, Egil Vigdel (10 min)
- A Danish perspective: Peter Wiliksen, Energimyndigheten (max 10 min)
- DISCUSSION: What are the challenges for using food waste to energy in the Nordics?

13:00-14:00 Brainstorming on next steps (policy recommendations)

- working in groups / Moderated discussions
- KEY QUESTION: Smart utilization of food waste for biofuels – Nordic co-operation?

Getting there

- Walking from the city center – 20 minutes
- By car: 15 minutes from the airport. A lot of parking space.
- By buss: Buss every 10 minutes from the city center.
- Airport bus to Stavanger with stop at the Conference center.

